ROCKEFELLER PHOTOS, LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

SHALOM STRICTLY KOSHER MEATS,
INCORPORATED d/b/a SIGNATURE
CATERERS,

Defendant.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Rockefeller Photos, LLC ("Plaintiff") sues defendant Shalom Strictly Kosher Meats, Incorporated d/b/a Signature Caterers ("Defendant"), and alleges as follows:

THE PARTIES

1. Plaintiff is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware with its principal place of business located in Miami-Dade County Florida.

2. Defendant is a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the State of Maryland with its principal place of business located at 2307 University Blvd., West Wheaton, MD 20902. Defendant's agent for service of process is Max E. Dekelbaum, 2307 University Blvd., West Wheaton, MD 20902.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).

4. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because it has maintained sufficient minimum contacts with this State such that the exercise of personal jurisdiction over it would not offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

5. Venue properly lies in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1400(a) because Defendant or its agents reside or may be found in this district. “The language ‘may be found’ means any district which may assert personal jurisdiction over a defendant.” Johnson v. Sky Media, LLC, No. 1:19-3269-MGL-PJG, 2020 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 73016, at *16-17 (D.S.C. Apr. 23, 2020). In other words, “venue is proper generally where personal jurisdiction can be asserted over the corporate defendant.” Frontline Test Equip. v. Greenleaf Software, 10 F. Supp. 2d 583, 589 (W.D. Va. 1998).

is displayed below:

9. The Work was registered by the above-named customer with the Register of Copyrights on September 1, 2016 and was assigned Registration No. VA 2-015-841. A true and correct copy of the Certificate of Registration pertaining to the Work is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

10. Plaintiff's above-named customer is the owner of the Work and has remained the owner at all times material hereto.

11. For all times relevant to this action, Plaintiff and its above-named customer were parties to one or more written agreements whereby such above-named customer conveyed to Plaintiff certain exclusive rights in the Work, including but not limited to the exclusive right to reproduce the Work in copies and the exclusive right to distribute copies of the Work to the public by sale and/or licensing. Such written agreement(s) likewise convey the exclusive right to pursue any infringements of the Work, whether such infringements arose prior to execution of the written agreement(s) or thereafter. As such, Plaintiff is entitled to institute and maintain this action for copyright infringement. See 17 U.S.C. § 501(b).

III. Defendant's Unlawful Activities

12. Defendant operates as a kosher grocery store in Silver Spring, MD, originally established in 1974 as Shalom Kosher. Defendant offers grocery items, chicken, fish, meats, as well as a full-service deli, bakery, and frozen foods. Defendant also operates a kosher catering service, established in 2000 as Signature Caterers, from a state-of-the-art facility in Rockville, MD.

Defendant advertises/markets its business through its websites (e.g., <https://www.theshalomgroup.com/>, <https://www.shalomkosher.com/>, <https://www.signaturecaterers.com/>, and <https://signature-caterers.square.site/>), social media (e.g., <https://www.instagram.com/shalomkosher/?hl=en>, <https://www.instagram.com/signaturecaterersmd>, <https://www.facebook.com/ShalomKosher/>, <https://www.facebook.com/SignatureCaterers/>, <https://x.com/ShalomKosher>, and <https://www.youtube.com/@shalomkosher5329>), and other forms of advertising.

15. A true and correct copy of the screenshot of Defendant's website, webpage, and/or social media, displaying the copyrighted Work, is attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

16. Defendant is not and has never been licensed to use or display the Work. Defendant never contacted Plaintiff to seek permission to use the Work in connection with Defendant's website, webpage, social media, and/or printed media – even though the Work that was copied is clearly professional photography that would put Defendant on notice that the Work was not intended for public use.

17. Defendant utilized the Work for commercial use.

18. Upon information and belief, Defendant located a copy of the Work on the internet and, rather than contact Plaintiff to secure a license, simply copied the Work for its own commercial use.

19. Through its ongoing diligent efforts to identify unauthorized use of its photographs, Plaintiff and/or its above-named customer discovered Defendant's unauthorized use/display of the Work on August 8, 2023. Following such discovery, Plaintiff and/or its above-named customer notified Defendant in writing of such unauthorized use.

20. All conditions precedent to this action have been performed or have been waived.

COUNT I – COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

21. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates paragraphs 1 through 20 as set forth above.

22. Each photograph comprising the Work is an original work of authorship, embodying copyrightable subject matter, that is subject to the full protection of the United States copyright laws (17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.).

23. Plaintiff's above-named customer owns a valid copyright in each photograph comprising the Work, having registered the Work with the Register of Copyrights.

24. Plaintiff has standing to bring this lawsuit and assert the claim(s) herein as it has sufficient rights, title, and interest to such copyrights (as Plaintiff was conveyed certain exclusive rights to reproduce and distribute the Work by the above-named customer).

25. As a result of Plaintiff and/or its above-named customer's reproduction, distribution, and public display of the Work, Defendant had access to the Work prior to its own reproduction, distribution, and public display of the Work on Defendant's website, webpage, social media, and/or printed media.

26. Defendant reproduced, distributed, and/or publicly displayed the Work without authorization from Plaintiff or its above-named customer.

27. By its actions, Defendant infringed and violated Plaintiff's exclusive rights in violation of the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 501. Defendant's infringement was either direct, vicarious, and/or contributory.

28. Defendant's infringement was willful as it acted with actual knowledge or reckless disregard for whether its conduct infringed upon Plaintiff's copyright. Notably, Defendant itself utilizes a copyright disclaimer on its websites ("© Copyright 2019 all rights reserved", "© 2024 by Shalom Kosher.", "© 2025 Signature Caterers. All rights reserved.", and "Copyright 2024"), indicating that Defendant understands the importance of copyright protection/intellectual property rights and is actually representing that it owns each of the photographs published on its websites. See, e.g., Bell v. ROI Prop. Grp. Mgmt., LLC, No. 1:18-cv-00043-TWP-DLP, 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 127717, at *3 (S.D. Ind. July 31, 2018) ("[T]he willfulness of ROI's infringement is evidenced by the fact that at the bottom of the webpage on which the Indianapolis photograph was unlawfully published appeared the following: 'Copyright © 2017.' By placing a copyright mark at the bottom of its webpage that contained Mr. Bell's copyrighted Indianapolis Photograph, Mr.

Bell asserts ROI willfully infringed his copyright by claiming that it owned the copyright to everything on the webpage."); John Perez Graphics & Design, LLC v. Green Tree Inv. Grp., Inc., Civil Action No. 3:12-cv-4194-M, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 61928, at *12-13 (N.D. Tex. May 1, 2013) ("Once on Defendant's website, Defendant asserted ownership of Plaintiff's Registered Work by including a copyright notice at the bottom of the page. Based on these allegations, the Court finds Plaintiff has sufficiently pled a willful violation...."). Defendant clearly understands that professional photography such as the Work is generally paid for and cannot simply be copied from the internet.

29. Plaintiff has been damaged as a direct and proximate result of Defendant's infringement.

30. Plaintiff is entitled to recover its actual damages resulting from Defendant's unauthorized use of the Work and, at Plaintiff's election (pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b)), Plaintiff is entitled to recover damages based on a disgorgement of Defendant's profits from infringement of the Work, which amounts shall be proven at trial.

31. Alternatively, and at Plaintiff's election, Plaintiff is entitled to statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c), in such amount as deemed proper by the Court.

32. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505, Plaintiff is further entitled to recover its costs and attorneys' fees as a result of Defendant's conduct.

33. Defendant's conduct has caused, and any continued infringing conduct will continue to cause, irreparable injury to Plaintiff unless enjoined by the Court. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502, Plaintiff is entitled to a permanent injunction prohibiting infringement of Plaintiff's exclusive rights under copyright law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendant as follows:

- a. A declaration that Defendant has infringed Plaintiff's copyrights in the Work;
- b. A declaration that such infringement is willful;
- c. An award of actual damages and disgorgement of profits as the Court deems proper or, at Plaintiff's election, an award of statutory damages for each photograph comprising the Work;
- d. Awarding Plaintiff its costs and reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505;
- e. Awarding Plaintiff interest, including prejudgment interest, on the foregoing amounts;
- f. Permanently enjoining Defendant, its employees, agents, officers, directors, attorneys, successors, affiliates, subsidiaries and assigns, and all those in active concert and participation with Defendant, from directly or indirectly infringing Plaintiff's copyrights or continuing to display, transfer, advertise, reproduce, or otherwise market any works derived or copied from the Work or to participate or assist in any such activity; and
- g. For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
